Docket No. SW-20769A-10-0469

Summary

On November 16, 2010, Wickenburg Ranch Wastewater, LLC ("WRWW") filed with the Arizona Corporation Commission ("Commission") an application for a Certificate of Convenience and Necessity ("CC&N") to provide wastewater utility service to customers in Yavapai County, Arizona, in an area approximately 5 miles north of the Town of Wickenburg ("Town") and directly adjacent to State Route 89 and U.S. Highway 93. Specifically, WRWW seeks to serve an area projected to include a proposed 2,182-acre master-planned community, known as Wickenburg Ranch, and a one-acre parcel dedicated to Arizona Public Service company ("APS") for construction of a substation.

The Commission's Utilities Division ("Staff") has not yet made a recommendation regarding WRWW's application. The Commission is not bound by the proposals made by WRWW, Staff, or any intervenors. The Commission will issue a decision regarding WRWW's application following consideration of testimony and evidence provided at an evidentiary hearing.

How You Can View or Obtain a Copy of the Application

Copies of the application are available for inspection during regular business hours at the Commission's Docket Control Center in Phoenix, at 1200 West Washington Street, Phoenix, Arizona 85007 and at WRWW's Offices at 4222 East Camelback Road, Suite H-100, Phoenix, Arizona 85018. The application is also available on the Internet via the Commission's website (www.azcc.gov) using the e-Docket function.

About Intervention

The law provides for an open public hearing at which, under appropriate circumstances, interested parties may intervene. Any person or entity entitled by law to intervene and having a direct and substantial interest in the matter will be permitted to intervene. If you desire to intervene, you must file a written motion to intervene with the Commission no later than April 19, 2011. You must send a copy of the motion to intervene to WRWW or its counsel and to all parties of record. Your motion to intervene must contain the following:

1. Your name, address, and telephone number and the name, address, and telephone number of any person upon whom service of documents is to be made, if not yourself;
2. A short statement of your interest in the proceeding (e.g., a potential customer of WRWW, etc.); and
3. A statement certifying that you have mailed a copy of the motion to intervene to WRWW or its counsel and to all parties of record in the case.

The granting of motions to intervene shall that all motions to intervene must be filed on or before April 19, 2011. If representation by counsel is required by Arizona Supreme Court Rule 31, intervention will be conditioned upon the intervenor's obtaining counsel to represent the intervenor. For information about requesting intervention, visit the Commission's website at <http://www.azcc.gov/divisions/utilities/forms/interven.pdf>. The granting of intervention, among other things, entitles a party to present sworn evidence at the hearing and to cross-examine other witnesses. However, failure to intervene will not preclude any interested person or entity from appearing at the hearing and providing public comment on the application or from filing written comments in the record of the case.
